

A

A Squash and a Squeeze is my favourite kids book because it is a rhyming book with some humour and has a great message.

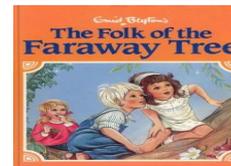

B

I love this book because it reminds me of when I use to visit my grandparents when I was a child.

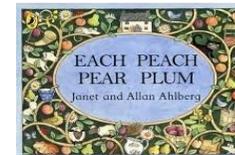

C

This was a book my big sister would read to me before I could read as she loved cats. When I could read, I still read this often.

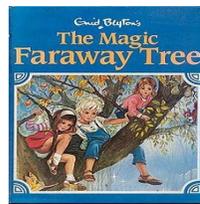

D

My Year Two teacher used to read it to the class with such enthusiasm. I loved imagining what all the characters would look like and how great it would be if that tree were REAL!!"

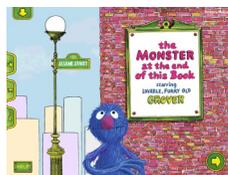

E

My favourite childhood book was Each Peach Pear Plum by Janet and Allan Ahlberg because I loved the rhythm and the way it rhymed.

F

I love The Faraway Tree Series by Enid Blyton. I just loved reading about the magic and adventures .

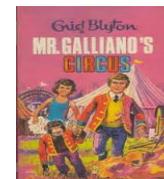

G

I loved the ironic humour, that it was in the 2nd person and the different exciting speech bubbles on each page. Poor Grover, I sent him to the end of that book so many times...

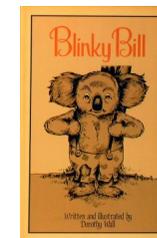

H

I enjoy reading this book to my class and love the way it encourages children to never give up!

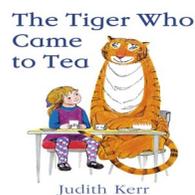

I

As a 10 year old I loved reading how Jimmy and his family ran away to join the circus. Lucky to be a circus dog. I always wanted to be Lotta!

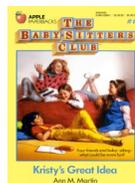

J

I thought I was so clever reading such a big book in Year 5 .

K

I loved this book as a child because I always secretly hoped that a tiger would come and have tea with me .

L

I used to read them when I was around the age of the characters so I felt like I was in the club when I was reading it.

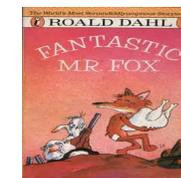

M

I loved reading any book by Enid Blyton! I couldn't get enough of them!

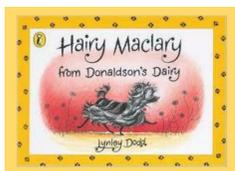

N

Roald Dahl's The Witches was my favourite book, as I loved the idea of little old ladies having a dark side.

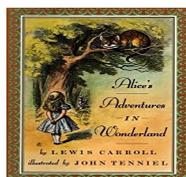

O

I love this book because the main character has to look after his family while escaping with them at all odds. It is funny, it involves adventure and heists. I have read it around 20 times.

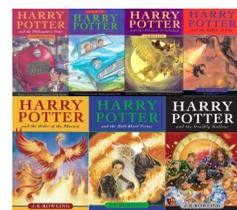

P

I have always loved dogs and all the rhyme in this text used to help me remember what word was coming next :)

Q

The White Rabbit, the Mad Hatter, the Mock Turtle, Cheshire Cat and the Queen of Hearts are simply the most memorable of my early childhood reading experiences.

R

I love the Harry Potter series because when I read them I escape to a wizarding world full of magic and adventure!

S

I enjoy a good mystery!

T

This is my favourite book because I had a black cat when I was little.
